

CLIP 2 PRESIDENT KENNEDY GREETES RB-47 PILOTS ON ARRIVAL AT
ANDREWS AFB, MARYLAND, 27 JANUARY 1961

Coverage of the arrival at Andrews AFB of Captains John R. McKone and Freeman Olmstead after being held in Russia since their RB-47 aircraft was shot down over the Barents Sea, 1 July 1960.

Shows Captains McKone and Olmstead alighting from a C-121, being greeted by President John F. Kennedy, their wives and relatives, Major General Arnold H. Luehman, Secretary of Air Force Eugene Zuckert and Base Commander Colonel William T. Smith.

Projection Media 1 Reel, 35mm, Color Print, Silent, Unedited 154 Feet

Reproduction Media 35mm, Color Interpositive

USAF Depository Basic 35mm, Color Original Negative,
USAF 29986, Reel 1