

"Hyannisport and Squaw Island"

8/29-9/2/63, Labor Day Weekend

16mm, sil., Koda II, "A" wind. 818' from first action frame. Source: Paul Fisher, White House, Box 17, Item 39.

Photographer: Stoughton

Informal footage of President John F. Kennedy (JFK) and his guests made over Labor Day weekend at Hyannisport.

Shot List

- 0'- John F. Kennedy Jr. rides down the pier in a wheelbarrow which is pushed by an unidentified man
- 11'- With the aid of an unidentified man, John Jr. guides a small motorboat out into the bay where the Honey Fitz is anchored.
- 49'- An unidentified man swims with Caroline Kennedy, John Jr. and several unidentified children at the beach near the compound.
- 156'- A sequence of shots of the children riding horses while JFK watches.
- 312'- JFK and Paul "Red" Fay take John Jr. to a toy shop in town; the three drive back to the compound.
- 353'- The Kennedys and their guests walk down the pier to the Honey Fitz.
- 362'- A cruise on the Honey Fitz. Lem Billings, Pat Lawford, Anita Fay, one unidentified man, one unidentified woman and two unidentified children accompanied the President and his family.
- 683'- Preparations for a television show taped that afternoon on the lawn of the President's Hyannisport residence. JFK and Walter Cronkite are seated on the lawn waiting for the final technical adjustments to be completed.
- 731'- JFK and his family drive to his father's residence.
- 733'- John Jr. runs up the walk of the Ambassador's (Joseph P. Kennedy Sr.) home and greets the Ambassador who is sitting on the porch.
- 743'- John Jr. runs to a helicopter which is waiting to take him and his father back to Washington.
- 754'- Interior shots made in the helicopter during the trip back to Washington.
- 818'- End Action.