

"Visit of the President of the United States"

8/1/63

16mm, sof, Ekta. C, "B" wind. 374' from first action frame. Sound is synced from 131'-345'; rest of track is music over.

Source:

Producer: Naval Photographic Center, 1211-44.

Photographers: Atkins-Knudsen

President John F. Kennedy went to Annapolis to address the Class of 1967 at the Naval Academy. He was accompanied by Sec. Paul B. Fay.

Shot List

- 0'- President Kennedy and party arrive at Annapolis by helicopter. He is greeted by several Navy officers and then the group walks to a building for a brief reception.
- 125'- President Kennedy arrives at Bancroft Hall where he addresses the cadets. For text of remarks see the Public Papers, 1963, #321.
- 338'- The President talks informally with a number of cadets.
- 374'- End action.