

FOREWORD

Transcript Warning:

All written transcripts are imperfect abstracts of spoken conversation. Variations in sound quality and in the aural acuity of listeners can and do produce wide variations in what is heard. Even though transcripts may be prepared at great effort and with great care, many points of ambiguity are inevitable, and erroneous interpretations from transcripts are always possible. Therefore, to ensure full confidence in any and all quotations from the presidential recordings, users are strongly urged to check all transcript renditions against the actual tape recordings before publication.

Copyright:

The donors assigned copyright that they might have in the recordings to the United States; however, copyright of the donors does not extend beyond statements uttered by John F. Kennedy, his minor children, and the donors themselves. Statements uttered by officials of the United States government in the course of their duties are considered to be in the public domain. Users of this material are cautioned, however, that not all persons recorded were members of the Kennedy family or government officials. A number of the people recorded were, at the time of recording, private citizens. Therefore, those intending to quote from this material beyond the accepted limits of fair use are cautioned to determine the copyright implications of any intended publication.

Punctuation:

The following conventions are used throughout the transcripts:

- * * * To indicate a pause in the recording while the speaker listens to the person speaking at the other end of the telephone. Used when only one side of a telephone conversation is recorded.
- [?] When the transcriber is not certain of what is said on the recording.
- To indicate a sentence which the speaker trails off without completing it.
- . . . When a speaker is interrupted before a sentence is completed.
- _____ To indicate the speaker's emphasis.
- [/] Used to enclose editorial comments of the transcriber such as /Meeting appears to be breaking up/ or /Several speakers speak at once and none of the words are intelligible./

Names:

The first time a name is mentioned, the full name is provided whenever it is known. "JFK" and "RFK" are used for President Kennedy and Robert Kennedy, respectively. When the identity of a speaker is unknown, "Speaker?" is used; when the identification of a speaker is uncertain, a question mark follows the name. The heading of each transcript gives the names of all participants listed in the President's Appointment Books as scheduled to attend the meeting.

Preparation:

These electronic documents were created from transcripts available in the audiovisual research room in the John F. Kennedy Library. The transcripts were scanned using optical character recognition and the resulting text files were proofread against the original transcripts. Some formatting changes were made.

Conversation #3: President Kennedy and Najeeb Halaby

June 4, 1963, 4:30 p.m.

Mr. Halaby: -----leak of the story, it varies about two hours ago.

President: Well, that doesn't mean that he has to do it. Didn't he know we were about to put it out here?

Mr. Halaby: Yes, he did.

President: Well, is this deliberate?

Mr. Halaby: I can't tell.

President: You can tell him he has given me the best argument for not having one airline represent the United States that I have ever heard. And I am going to spend the next time I'm here really getting a screwing to Pan American. Because that sticks it right to us. How can we possibly go ahead now with our program, to which we are going to spend an awful lot of money, which was very important to the United States, which affected the balance of payments in the hundreds of millions of dollars? And I am going to put all this out and then go ahead about 24 hours before we are about to make our announcement.

Mr. Halaby: Yes, sir.

President: Didn't you have an understanding with him that he would wait?

Mr. Halaby: Yes, sir. Yes, sir.

President: Well, now, will you give him this message from me and make it very clear that I think he ought to retract that. That he ought to wait now and see what the United States is going to do. Otherwise, it is going to be very clear that Pan Am is contributing in a significant way to the United States being in a secondary position in the air and also to our balance of payments problem. We will give him all the trouble he wants, because there isn't going to be anything that is going to make me more excited than doing that.

Mr. Halaby: Right.

President: Thank you.

Mr. Halaby: Yes, sir.
